

CoSECTOR | UNIVERSITY
OF LONDON

Research Technologies 2018

Rory McNicholl & Julie Allinson

Vital statistics

40 hosted repositories and e-journals

Across 28 institutions

431k items

2.8 TB repository data

14 TB archive data

Plugins for

- OAI-PMH
- REF
- RIOXX
- SWORD
- IIF
- IRUS
- DataCite
- ORCID (coming soon)
- Issues2 (coming soon)

Integrations with

- Arkivum
- Pure
- Symplectic
- Archivematica

What we've done

- Q1
 - EPrints upgrades start
 - Hull City of Culture project start
- Q2
 - EPrints upgrades complete (mostly)
 - King's Fund Samvera
- Q3
 - Open source REF2021 plugin
 - OJS upgrades start
- Q4
 - EPrints upgrade
 - Customer event
 - Warburg Samvera

Where we've been

- Open Repositories (virtually!)
- Repository Fringe
- ARA
- Museums and Digital Preservation (british museum)
- Samvera Connect
- Internet Librarian International

Core Team

Plus ...

Account Managers / Sales:
Tasha, Assma, Hans

SysAdmins: Neseem,
Malcolm, Hans ...

Comms / Marketing: Clare,
Phoebe, Rina, Sabrina

What we're about

Open source

Open standards

Open access

Open data

“Helping institutions make stuff available”

“Services not software”

“Open as default”

“Making it easy to exit”

Community and partnership

EPrints - long history of open contribution

Samvera - contributions to public codebase, working/interest groups

Arkivum - partnership on offering arkivum with eprints (and Samvera)

Cottage Labs - partnership on Hull city of culture project (U of Hull)

Flexible

Community supported

Evolving / forward looking

Feature-rich

Open source / open standards

international

IIIF Search

Universal Viewer for Audio,
Video, PDF, 3D

Hyrax for data / DataCite DOIs

Nested Metadata and Dog
Biscuits improvements

OA / REF Compliance
Reporting

OAI-PMH as standard

Batch Import-Export / SWORD /
large file ingest support

Arkivum Storage Adapter

Archivematica Integration

Cloud deployment and devops

